All Church Vote on Becoming a Reconciling Congregation January 8, 2012, 10:30 am

An All Church Vote to decide if First UMC Park Ridge should become a Reconciling congregation, a member of the Reconciling Ministries Network, is scheduled for 10:30 am on Sunday, January 8th.

All church members, including confirmed youth, are eligible to vote.

The vote will be by written ballot with absentee ballots allowed.

All ballots must be signed.

Absentee ballots can be picked up from the church office beginning December 27 and must be returned by 9:30 am on Sunday, January 8th.

If necessary, you can call the office and ask to have a ballot mailed to you.

A requirement of joining the Reconciling Ministries Network is the adoption of a Welcoming Statement that specifically includes people of all sexual orientations or gender identities. The welcoming statement is a separate statement that accompanies our mission statement. The following statement was agreed upon at an open meeting on December 13. For more information, contact Katy Hansen.

WELCOMING STATEMENT

At First UMC Park Ridge,

“welcoming all” means that we see all persons as created in the image of God and bearing sacred worth and dignity.

We invite all persons to participate fully in the life of our church regardless of age, race, ethnic background, sexual orientation, gender identity, physical or mental condition, marital status, family situation, or economic standing.

(More information on becoming reconciling is available on page 9)

MISSION STATEMENT

We are a multi-generational Christian community welcoming all, offering spiritual growth and opportunities for compassionate service.

Wow! What a year! One of the nice things about a late All-Church Conference in December is reading the exciting reports of our church's many ministries. God has certainly been at work doing new things in and through us this past year. Some of the "firsts" for me include the following. I had the joy of co-leading my first Triduum Service during Holy week; laughed my way through our Merry Methodist Players' hilarious rendition of the play, The Curious Savage; discovered how much the Bible speaks directly to ecology and conservation during our combined adult/children's "green" Vacation Bible School; and sweated and chuckled my way through a summer mission project with our youth in a place I'd never been before—Teec Nos Pos, Arizona. On the heels of that came Hopefest. What a wonderful, exhilarating day as First UMC led our entire community in taking back the tenth anniversary of September 11 as a day of hope and service. Working with and supporting our All Means All team throughout the year was also a first, as our congregation made great strides toward becoming a reconciling church. That process has been deeply satisfying while at the same time has taken me, and no doubt most of us, outside our comfort zones on occasion.

It's great to look back at new things I've experienced as your pastor in 2011. But it's even better to look ahead, to look forward to what God has in store for us this coming year—in meaningful worship, relevant learning and growth in discipleship, warm fellowship and life-changing mission and outreach.

What are you looking forward to in 2012? As Christians, we face a daily choice. Will we turn inward and focus on ourselves, on our own needs and desires? Or, will we look beyond ourselves and open ourselves fully to God and God's purposes for us? The latter, I believe, is the key to a truly Happy New Year.

Recycling Fundraiser Opportunity!

UMW is organizing the recycling of several types of packaging that are not always recyclable. We will collect the items listed below and send them to Terracycle.com. They will pay shipping costs.

We will start with these items, but depending on response, we may change the items we collect. We have agreed to collect from January through May. If we have good response, we may make it an on-going project. A receiving container for all items will be available near the Grant Place entrance. Items will be sorted into separate bins on the third floor. Items should be clean (especially the food packaging.)

Terracycle will pay us for each item, so we will be earning cash as well as helping to protect the environment. We hope this proves to be a healthy fundraiser and we encourage you to spread the word to others you know who are interested in a cleaner environment.

UMW Board Meeting

The UMW Board will meet in the Library on Thursday, January 12 at 10:30 am.

Sundays, January 8 - Feb. 12, 10:30 am Momentum for Life – A 6 week series, based on material from Mike Slaughter. (Library)

Our culture constantly shows how leaders have failed—from Bill Clinton's indiscretions to Martha Stewart's deception, from the business collapse at Enron to the military meltdown at Abu Ghraib prison. Many church problems likewise can be traced back to a failure of leadership. Such problems are nothing new. Stories of leadership failures are chronicled throughout the Bible. "If you can't lead yourself, you won't be effective at leading others. Self leadership precedes strategic leadership." With this perspective, Michael Slaughter, lead pastor and chief visionary at Ginghamburg, explains his model for daily living, which he has adapted from the Psalms of Ascent. His five life practices for balance and self-leadership together form the acronym D-R-I-V-E:

Devotion to God,
Readiness for lifelong learning,
Investing in key relationships,
Visioning for the future, and
Eating and Exercise for life.

Taken together, these practices shape life as an upward momentum. They remind us that leadership is not about entitlement, but example.

Every follower of Christ needs to find the self-management practices that create momentum for life and guard against the temptation to downsize God's dream. "God can't steer a parked car," Slaughter says. "God is looking for people who will take their lives out of park and shift them into drive." These leadership tools will inspire and show you how to sustain personal health, integrity, and strategic focus as a leader.

BURKINA WHAT?

Burkina Faso. Literally—Land of the Righteous Ones. It’s a small country in West Africa in the area where Pastor Rich grew up as a missionary kid. And that’s where he will be spending a few weeks in January, continuing to develop a mission that began several years ago as a result of his doctoral dissertation and a visit commemorating the life of his Dad. Pastor Rich’s 2005 dissertation was on the role of Protestant missionary work and earth-keeping (conservation) in Africa. The trip to Burkina Faso in 2006 was in memory of his Dad, Rev. Dick Darr, who passed away a year and a half earlier. Dick Darr had served as a missionary in West Africa for twenty years.

The result of Rich’s trip to Burkina Faso in 2006 has been an ongoing, four-pronged mission effort that includes working with Protestant pastors and Roman Catholic priests, providing scholarships for High School students to take field trips into a local conservation reserve, supplying medicine to two medical clinics, and providing a grain grinder for the Women’s Association of Falonzon village. The latter came about as a result of the prayer shawl ministry of our congregation’s women!

Thank you, First UMC Park Ridge, for your partnership, strong support and generous gifts of time away and money to make this mission possible. Our United Methodist Women have contributed $500 toward a grain grinder that will both alleviate the daily burden of women while at the same time providing them with a sustainable income directly benefitting them, their children and their village. Others of you have given financially as well as offered encouragement and moral support. In February, Pastor Rich will report on the trip and progress made, speaking at the monthly UMW luncheon. He will also present his—better yet our—mission work in Burkina Faso in various settings. If you’d like for him to make a presentation to your group, simply let him know. Your prayers are greatly appreciated.

What Would it Mean for First UMC Park Ridge to Become Reconciling?

Jesus was radically inclusive, and so we are called to follow his example. With this vote, and our follow-up, First UMC Park Ridge would move closer to Jesus' model, extending our welcome to gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgendered persons—as we have in the past for other of- ficially excluded groups, such as divorced persons, people of color, and women.

What would the change mean for the church, specifically? For some of us, the change would mean a new freedom to be fully ourselves, to be open about our sexual identity with the under- standing that our participation in this church will be equal to the participation of every other United Methodist member—with the rights to follow God's call to become ordained pastors regardless of relationship status and to marry our partners with the blessing and presence of our faith community.

For some of us, it would mean continuing to invite family members, friends, and neighbors to visit or join our congregation, but with a greater assurance that our guests would be welcomed.

For some of us, it would mean continuing or beginning efforts to work for the full inclusion of gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgendered persons within the global United Methodist Church, which continues to exclude persons based on what we consider to be an outdated belief that ho- mosexuality is “incompatible with Christian teaching,” rather than following Jesus' example of radical inclusion and love.

For all of us, it would mean continuing to educate ourselves about what makes our church truly welcoming to gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgendered persons ... as well as to persons of any age, race, ethnic background, physical ability, mental condition, marital status, family situation, economic standing, or theological view.

— Lisa Campbell

Why I Believe We Should Become a Reconciling Church

First of all, our United Methodist slogan: “Open hearts. Open minds. Open doors.” clearly implies that all are welcome. The slogan doesn't mean Methodists have open hearts, open minds, and open doors for everyone except gays and lesbians.

Moreover, the most important thing I have learned in church is that Jesus loves me. I learned this when I was three when I first sang the song “Jesus Loves Me.” Doesn't the bible teach us to love our neighbors? What if my neighbor is gay? Aren't we taught that God loves us just the way we are? We cannot call ourselves Christians when we can't even follow the ba- sic principles that Jesus taught. 1 John 4:7 says, “Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God.” The word love is in the bible 442 times. I think we need to be reminded of that.
